

Dear Parents/Carers

Aesop's Touring Theatre arrived this week presenting two fantastic shows, 'Search for the Lost Tomb' and 'Not Such an Ugly Duckling.' The actors commented on just how knowledgeable the children were when it came to Ancient Egypt! It's such a fascinating topic and we've loved our Egyptian crafts, from mummifying dolls to creating canopic jars.

The children created incredible stories inspired by the Man from Story Mountain and we said farewell to Camp Canary this Summer with bouncy castle fun!

Search for the Lost Tomb! | Not Such an Ugly Duckling

The children met up with a dotty professor and her faithful companion on the banks of the Nile in Aesop's Fables 'Search for the Lost Tomb.' Sadly, one of the children didn't make it and was mummified! The younger children loved the delightful tale of 'Not Such an Ugly Duckling' and discovered that beauty is only skin deep.

Play...

Quidditch
A Camp Canary favourite, the children play 'Muggle' Quidditch using a ping pong ball as the snitch and dodge balls for 'bludgers.'

Yoga
The lovely Amber lead a wonderfully relaxing yoga session with the Early Years group. Some much needed quiet and calm for our youngest!

Ultimate Ninja Warrior
This obstacle course begins with a strong rope pull, the children have to pull themselves along using upper body strength.

Sports Day
The Kidz group competed in a mini sports day!

On the 15th July, the children created their own animations using lightboxes and silhouettes. The results are incredible! Click on the link above to view.

Man from Story Mountain | Ancient Egyptian Story Telling

The Man from Story Mountain inspired the children to write their own Ancient Egyptian stories, looking at exotic artifacts, drawing and writing.

Coming Up

For further dates this academic year, please see our website:

<https://www.campcanary.co.uk/p-dates>

Our next holiday is October Half Term 21 – 25 October 2019.
Booking will open soon, I will be in touch!

I would like to thank you for supporting Camp Canary this Summer. It's been a privilege to care for your children and get to know their little faces appearing at the front door each day, growing more and more in confidence.

It gives me enormous pleasure to see them enjoying the activities and I know we've made lots of positive memories this Summer together.

And finally, if you have any questions don't hesitate to let me know. If you aren't able to catch me at Camp, you can contact me by telephone or email during office hours.

Best Wishes

Hannah Forster
